

WRITING

OUR LIVES

- An opportunity for you to write about your world.
- An opportunity for you to research your world.
- An opportunity for you to read more about your world.
- An opportunity for you to use technology to communicate your world to others (communication and community share the same prefix)
- A safe, supportive, and encouraging workshop and writing support group (no grading)
- An opportunity for you to express your world in words, digital technology, voice, concerns, and knowledge.
