

In Your Composition Notebook, Make a List of Ten Things That Make You the Person You Are.

this may include your family this may include hobbies/sports this may include where you were born this may include your neighborhood this may include the music you listen to this may include your relationships this may include what you like to read about this may include what you like to watch this may include what you think about a lot this may include your future goals this may include your likes/dislikes of school this may include important stories to your life this may include obstacles you've faced/overcome